

SPEAKER EVENT INFORMATION

How can Black students succeed and win at a predominately white college? Reflections from a retired college president

GUEST SPEAKER

John I. Williams, Jr., retired President of Muhlenberg College,
Amherst College Alum
and Life Trustee, and graduate of Harvard Law School and
Harvard Business School

Speaker Event Reviews

"I thought the said session was done extremely well. John Williams, Jr. gave practical, insightful tips for black students to succeed in the college environment--PWI or otherwise."

Odell L. Brown, CIA, CPA, PHR

Executive Director, Dallas ACAP (Accounting Career Awareness Program)

"I have pages of notes from last night's webinar. Mr. Williams provided relatable examples and many nuggets of practical advice for navigating the college years. I found his suggestion to select a college based on "best fit" to be especially impactful. I will review my notes and share thoughts and ideas with the students I mentor."

Wilma L. Simons

Volunteer Coach, Arlington (VA) Career Center Coaching Program