

JESSICA BERRY

Admissions Counselor for Transfer Students, Harding University

Jessica Berry aspires to be one of, if not, the first African American woman president for a Christian University

Jessica Berry is a native of Dallas, TX and serves as an Admissions Counselor for Transfer Students at Harding University. Her passion for Christian education is the vehicle for a successful career thus far! She is an active member of Harding's Diversity Consortium and Sub-committee leader for the Harding University Task Force for Recognizing African-American Achievement, a sponsor for The Black Student Association, and a member of the Cannon-Clary College of Education Diversity Committee. She aspires to be one of, if not, the first African American woman president for a Christian University. Jessica is an avid NBA Basketball fan and loves to collect retro Air Jordans! Traveling is one of her favorite hobbies along with trying new local restaurants. She received a Bachelor's of Arts in Broadcast Journalism from Harding and is currently pursuing a Masters in Organizational Leadership through the University. She currently lives in Searcy, Arkansas.

The Secret To Writing, LLC
Expanding College
Opportunity Speaker Series

P.O. Box 6726

Houston, TX 77265

Phone: 404.869.1290

Email:
info@thesecrettowriting.com