

NICHOLE REYNOLDS

Senior Associate Director of Admission Mount Holyoke College

Nichole Reynolds is a firm believer in the value and transformative power of women's colleges.

Nichole is Director of Enrollment Marketing and Communications and Senior Associate Director of Admission at her alma mater, Mount Holyoke College – the first of the powerful Seven Sister Colleges. After graduating from Mount Holyoke, she earned her Master's degree in American Studies from the University of Massachusetts Amherst, where she focused on 19th century black print culture and politics. After spending her early career teaching writing at UMass Amherst, Nichole moved to the admission world.

At Mount Holyoke, she manages West Coast recruitment efforts. A firm believer in the value and transformative power of women's colleges, what energizes her most in her work with prospective students is introducing them to the possibilities spaces like Mount Holyoke hold. Outside of work, Nichole is a road cyclist and avid hiker with a 2022 goal of summiting the top 10 peaks in the state of Vermont.
