Wendell A. M. Bryant has garnered experience across several industries, functions, and companies. He began his career in the Supply/Chain area at The Procter & Gamble Company where he completed the Management Training Program. He left to enter Business School and then joined General Mills, Inc. as a marketing research analyst and spent five years moving progressively from tactical to more strategic roles. After five years, he moved to the human resources function at General Mills where he spent time in corporate recruiting and in labor relations at a manufacturing facility on the west side of Chicago.

Wanting a change, he sought to move back south and was hired by Ernst & Young LLP in Atlanta. He worked in recruiting and later moved to organizational effectiveness – which combined the best of his marketing research experience with his human resources experience. Later The Home Depot employed him as a Director in their Human Resources function where he spent two years working with a team to build a full-fledged enterprise-wide staffing function to handle from workforce planning to sourcing to recruiting to tracking to hiring to on-boarding.

Wendell combined the skills that he honed in his years of business experience with his natural talents and passion to form Bryant Solutions Group, LLC. For seven years, he was a principal consultant where he had clients that included Pfizer, Inc., Capgemini US LLC, and the Terry College of Business @ the University of Georgia.

After taking a couple of years off to be a caregiver for an ailing parent, he joined The City of Atlanta and has served as a contracting Officer, the Director of Talent Acquisition, and as an HR Principal at Hartsfield-Jackson Atlanta International Airport and in the Department of Parks & Recreation.

A native South Floridian with adolescent ties to Dallas, Texas, Wendell graduated from Morehouse College with honors and obtained his MBA from Atlanta University (now Clark Atlanta University). He is a member of Society of Human Resource Management, a lifetime member of the National Black MBA Association and Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc. He has been a presenter at national and regional conferences, quoted in The Wall Street Journal, and has served on the Board of Directors of the Atlanta Community ToolBank and The Home Depot Foundation. He currently serves as a Deacon at his church - The Word of Faith Family Worship Cathedral @ Six Flags.
